<sup>10</sup> I make known the end from the beginning,
from ancient times, what is still to come.
I say: My purpose will stand,
and I will do all that I please. (Isaiah 46:10)

- I. Arguing with God (45:9-12)
  - A. How we argue with God on a personal level.
  - B. How we argue with God over everything.

- II. What you should know about His plan (45: 21-25)
  - A. Why do we struggle with the idea of there being only one way to God?
  - B. Why do we struggle with the idea of bending our knees?
  - C. Why do we struggle with the idea of judgment?

- III. What you should know about His purpose (46:8-13)
  - A. Why do we rebel?
  - B. Why do we not want to be saved?

- IV. Learning from God (48:17-21)
  - A. How we fail to learn from God.
  - B. How we fail to flee what is wrong.
  - C. How we fail to receive peace.

As we enter a new school year, we are all faced with a decision. Will we learn the world view of the world or learn the world view of God? Our bent is to follow the crowd and believe what everyone else believes. However, if we follow the world, peace will constantly be out of reach. If we follow God, peace we will have.
