telling the unsaved of salvation by grace,
encouraging the saved to live and grow in grace,
and extending grace to others.*

An Exciting Time Indeed

As children, we all remember the many times we anxiously waited for Christmas Day to arrive. We were filled with anticipation as we saw the gifts appear under the Christmas tree, trying to guess what each one was, hidden under the beautifully wrapped paper. When the day finally came, our hearts were eager to rip off the paper and see what surprises awaited us.

Surprises are fun! They're fun to receive, and they're also fun to give to others. We still enjoy the anticipation of the unknown, at least when we know something good is to come.

Sometimes the unknown can bring fear or anxiety. Our minds are often filled with what-ifs, usually unwarranted but they come nonetheless. Trusting God in the unknowns is a muscle all of us must develop. Our hearts tell us that God is in control but our minds are not always as quick to follow.

I truly believe Burleson Bible Church is on the cusp of something great. As our new pastor Gary arrives, so might some anxieties, and that's ok. It wouldn't be unusual to wonder what he will do that's different or what new ministries might begin? What God is going to do through our church is an unknown, but what is known is that God is faithful and His purposes for us are perfect.

It's an exciting time, and I hope you are looking forward to watching God not only use our church to greatly impact our community for His Kingdom, but to also use you in unexpected ways. As we step out in faith, we need to be reminded of some important truths. First, we don't know the whole plan but God does, and he chooses us to be a part of it. Second, there might be some things that do not make sense to us but much like stepping out of perfectly good boat to walk on water, our God is completely trustworthy! Finally, we have the opportunity to see God perform the impossible - yet again. He has shown Himself to BBC in so many ways in the past that we shouldn't be surprised for what He will do through us in the future.

Keep praying for BBC. It's an exciting time indeed!
