

Our vision is to be a community of grace, telling the unsaved of salvation by grace, encouraging the saved to live and grow in grace, and extending grace to others.

Storms

Well, February was quite an interesting month. Most of us have not experienced a snow storm in Texas like the one we just had! My goodness, that was surreal. We are used to enduring an ice day every two to three years, but nothing that shuts down the state for a week. The loss of electricity and burst water pipes was devastating. A storm of this magnitude effects everyone, and there is very little we can do about it, other than wait it out and do our best to survive.

Storms are a part of life. Not weather-related storms, but trials and difficulties that interrupt our regular routine. This isn't news to us, we have all experienced them at varying degrees, and usually at inopportune times. God's Word tells us that we will face difficulties in this life and we shouldn't be surprised when hardship or persecution comes our way. When they do come, how should a believer respond? Is there an appropriate way to handle a difficult situation?

When a storm hits us, our initial responses are usually ones of sadness, anger, frustration, discouragement, fear, etc., but we do not need to linger in those emotions. Repeatedly, the Bible tells us we can have peace through difficult times. Psalm 23:4; John 14:27; John 16:33; Phillipians 4:6-7; 2 Thessalonians 3:16; 1 Peter 5:7, just to name a few. As we go through hardship, we can rest assured that God does not leave us alone. He gives comfort to the sad, rest to the weary, and courage to the fearful.

Through the unending grace of God, we are able to experience a peace that the world will never understand. Think about that! We have a great opportunity to reflect and exhibit the peace of Christ at a time when the world would otherwise shake their fist at God, and question why these things are happening.

Our world is a broken one. Our society is lost and many are without hope. As they watch us respond to life's trials, let's use every opportunity God grants us to share the hope and peace of Christ, so that others might find abundant life in Him.

Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for my soul. Ps. 66:16 ESV
