

THE BODYBUILDER

Our vision is to be a community of grace, telling the unsaved of salvation by grace,
encouraging the saved to live and grow in grace,
and extending grace to others.

Completely Satisfied

O God, you are my God; earnestly I seek you;
my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you,
as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

My soul will be satisfied as with fat and rich food,
and my mouth will praise you with joyful lips,
Psalm 63:1,5 ESV

When was the last time you were afraid? Was there a time you were facing a difficulty that was simply overwhelming, perhaps from finances, relationships, or even physical illness? Fear affects all of us at different times and in varying intensities.

As David penned those words in Psalm 63, he was in danger, fearful of losing his life to his son Absalom. Several years ago, I had the opportunity to travel to Israel and I saw firsthand the dry and weary land that David looked upon. It's easy to understand how David became discouraged. David longed for his home in Jerusalem, he felt separated from God, and he was desperate to be back in His presence.

Just as David used the barren wasteland as a background for his own spiritual condition, we too can find ourselves in a similar setting. Life circumstances can leave us not only anxious and in need of rescue, but at times even feeling separated from God.

As David continued to write in this Psalm, he looks to God and beholds His power and glory. He proclaims that God's love is better than life! He found the strength he needed to endure and face the uncertainties that were before him. He knew that God would comfort him just as He had done many times before in the past.

We have the same hope, the same assurance, the same comfort. God watches over us, and even in our darkest hour, we rest in the shadow of His wings. As His children, we find our joy through Him. Our needs are met through His perfect provision. His grace floods our lives, and He satisfies our souls beyond our understanding.

Last week we watched the much-needed rain pour down around us. What a beautiful depiction of God's love flooding our entire being. As you traverse through life and find yourself in the dry and weary land, look to Him. Find rest in His care, for He will satisfy the weary.
